July 2005

Celebrate the Fourth of July in the Downtown Arts District this year!! And what a weekend.....

July 1, 7-10:00 join us for the First Friday Gallery Hop. Visit our shops and galleries full of local ART and CRAFT. Artist studios are open with new work, and new exhibits in our galleries, and music in the streets. Support your local artists! Shops and restaurants, and evening entertainment are daily events in the Downtown Arts District. Tuesday and Thursday shop downtown at the City market with local produce and plants, baked goods and crafts. Have lunch, shop and browse the galleries.

July 2, The fifth annual HRW events can be found at www.heavyrebel.net. Saturday during the day, check out the car exhibit in the streets. 7-10:00 Summer on Trade this week is a special event with the Heavy Rebel Weekender all weekend in the Downtown Arts District. As always, parking is available in the parking deck on Marshall Street.

Remember that you can have the Sounds of the Art District with "trade secrets", a collection of original tunes from our Winston-Salem musicians for a $10 donation. CD's are available at local shops. DADA mugs and T-shirts are available too.. For more info visit our website, www.dadaaws.org.

We will see you at the Gallery Hop on Friday, July 1 from 7-10. Look below to see the schedule of Gallery openings, Featured local artists, and classes and workshops.

Artworks in Wonderland

Artworks Gallery is presenting a two-person show with E.O. Hill showing collages and drawings inspired by Alice In Wonderland, and Nanu LaRosee showing oil paintings.

E.O. Hill has been inspired by the original illustrator, John Tenniel, of the book, Alice In Wonderland. He is creating his own interpretations of the various sections of the book, such as illustrating the Mad Hatter as Keith Richards, and Janis Joplin as Alice with Jimi Hendrix becoming the caterpillar.

The reception is Friday, July 1 from 7:00 – 10:00pm. It will coincide with the Gallery Hop in the Arts District. The exhibit is free and open to the public.
